Quote: “I have learned that success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which one has overcome while trying to succeed.” – Booker T. Washington

It’s one thing to know that God has called you to do something for Him, but another thing never to be daring enough to do it! Everyone is born with destiny and purpose in their genetic make-up. It’s part of their DNA. It is a given. It does not matter how you got to where you are. God allowed you to be here and He has called you to something greater than yourself!

The late Dr. Marcus Harold Morgan, Pastor of Emerald Avenue Church of God in Chicago, IL in one of his sermons said, “That of all the forms of reading and all the forms of literature and reading is that genre that is known as biography. And what Dr. Morgan said was that when you and I read the life story of men and women who persevered, who pressed on, who in spite of what they went through, still achieved and accomplished, it reminds us that we never have to give up because the greater one is inside of us and the victory is already ours to have.”

Christine Kane, author of “Undaunted: Daring to do What God Called you to do” says, “God chooses the unlikely to do the unimaginable.” She goes on to say that there are 5 waiting traps that can hinder you from daring to do what God has called you to do.

[WAITING TRAP #1 - WAITING FOR PERMISSION]

Waiting for permission is based in a paradigm that says others who are more significant, more important, more real than you get to grant you permission to make the decision to be undaunted and dare to do what God has called you to do.

[WAITING TRAP #2 - WAITING FOR PERFECTION]

You can get stuck in this trap when you wait for a more perfect model of yourself to emerge. Perfection is just a convenient illusion that keeps you from having to take action.

[WAITING TRAP #3 - WAITING FOR CERTAINTY]

Have you ever found yourself saying these words? “I won’t move a muscle until I’ve received confirmation that this is a no-risk, no-chance-for-failure decision.” You simply got to have faith!

[WAITING TRAP #4 - WAITING FOR RESCUE]

The lesson every successful person learns: no one is coming. Rescue yourself. Do the uncomfortable work.

[WAITING TRAP #5 - WAITING FOR DISCOVERY]

If you’re waiting for discovery, it’s not entirely your fault. Do you know what’s worse? Giving your destiny over to someone else. You have to discover yourself.

Make a decision from this day forward to be disciplined, determined, diligent and undaunted and dare to do what God has called you to do! I triple dare you!
