

“Consider The Source”

“And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.”

Mark 5:26

My late Stepmother loved her Cadillacs. Seems like she would trade in her Cadillac for another one every two years. My first car was not that luxurious. As a teen, I worked two jobs to buy an old used Dodge. Eventually, my car had problems. My Stepmom had her friend to fix my car. Her friend had no formal training nor a shady tree of his own to do his mechanic work. Thankfully, all went well. I only paid for parts and $50 for labor and lunch. He advised me to be careful and not drive too far or too fast. Little did I know, I would need him to fix the same issue every three months. Slowly, but surely, the one problem I had turned into multiple problems and the price to fix it grew too. UGH!

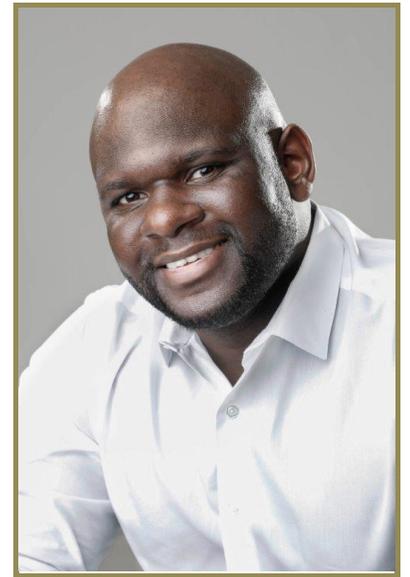

One day, Mom's car had mechanical issues. I had her friend come and diagnose the matter. He popped the hood and she ran out yelling thunderously, “Don’t you touch my car!” She sent him home and told me not to ever have him touch her car. I was confused. I asked, “Why was it ok for him to work on my car and not yours?” That’s when I learned one of the greatest spiritual lessons ever.

Mom said her car was far too valuable to be placed in the hands of anyone except the Dealer. She proclaimed that the Dealer is the source who made the car and knows all the details about it. Therefore, no matter how much it cost, it is best to go back to the Creator. Plus, the Cadillac came with a warranty so her car was already covered.

I encourage you in the same manner. You are far too valuable to take your issues to anyone except Elohim, your Creator, the Dealer, The Source. He is the only one who knows all the intricate details of who you are. There may be others who can do patch work, but just like the Woman with the issue of blood, you will only grow worse spending all your time and money on the assistance of resources when only the Source, God, can make you positively and permanently well.

Finally, with Christ, there is no need to worry about the price for your repairs. His blood has covered the cost already and He guarantees that with His stripes, you are healed.
